Prices for both acid and rennet casein were unchanged this week. Contacts share that seasonal declines in farm level milk production in Oceania have kept casein production schedules limited. Stakeholders say international demand for acid casein is in line with recent weeks, whereas demand remains light in Oceania. Spot load availability remains tight in Oceania. European contacts relay steady rennet casein production schedules, as well as steady demand. Inventories are available for spot purchasers.

Prices for: Spot Sales And Up to 3 Month Contracts, Free on Board - Warehouse, Non-Restricted, All Mesh Sizes, Conventional, and Edible Casein
