This week, acid and rennet casein prices were unchanged. Demand for acid casein has been somewhat muted in recent weeks. Contacts from Oceania report scheduled downtime due to the end of year holidays has contributed to lighter acid casein production. Spot loads of acid casein are available for purchasing. Spot market rennet casein demand was lighter in the waning weeks of 2024. In Europe, stakeholders say downtime for the holidays has impacted rennet casein production. Rennet casein is available for spot purchasing.
