There were no price changes for rennet or acid casein this week. Despite the steady to growing availability of rennet casein, demand notes range from quiet to stable. Quieter market activity is expected for the last weeks of the quarter at the current rate. Contractual negotiations regarding Q1 are aligning with the current quarter. Milk output limitations in Europe have acid casein expectations for 2025 trading slightly more bullish than its rennet casein counterpart, but market contacts suggest trading activity and market tones are balanced.

Prices for: Spot Sales And Up to 3 Month Contracts, Free on Board - Warehouse, Non-Restricted, All Mesh Sizes, Conventional, and Edible Casein

Acid; Price Range - $/LB:	3.7500-4.0500
Rennet; Price Range - $/LB:	3.4500-3.7000
