Just starting to get into the fall calf run this week. The next several weeks there will be a lot of mostly bawling calves heading to new homes. Buyers continue to seek calves with precondition shots as they usually have less health problems at weaning. Light to moderate rain showers across the Cornhusker state mid-week. Rain reports from .50 to near 5.00 inches in some areas stopping harvest in its track. However, many are not complaining as it put moisture in the soil and helps clean the dust out of the air. Cash feedlot sales in Nebraska range from mostly 122.00 to 124.00 live and 196.00 dressed. Next released report Oct 12th.
