The whey protein concentrate 34% (WPC 34%) price moved at both ends of the range this week. The bottom of the range dropped 5 cents based on several reported sales and the top end rose 12 cents. The mostly range increased two cents at the top of the range. Some contacts mention a trend for higher pricing for WPC 34% destined for infant formula and sports nutrition. Supplies are tight and demand remains strong for most whey protein concentrates.
